The Countries Pages:

(Australia, South Africa, South Korea, Mexico, Greece, Italy, New Zealand)

This page is dedicated to showcasing "Countries" and the exceptional services we provide. You'll find comprehensive seasonal insights and temperature expectations that empower clients to prepare effectively. We will highlight various cities and their unique attractions, along with an inviting "Get Started" button.

At the top, we feature in-page links for seamless navigation, with "Countries Name" boldly displayed in large letters.

In the center, we present compelling information about Australia and what makes it truly remarkable. Next, we delve into the popular cities and their standout highlights. Following that, we outline the different seasons and the typical temperature ranges clients can expect.

At the bottom, we confidently pose the question, "Ready to Start Your Dream Travel?" accompanied by a button that directs you to the planning page.

Start Page:

The start page serves as the initial point for clients to gather and manage their travel information effectively. It will prompt them to indicate whether they will be traveling solo, in a group, or in a random group setting. Additionally, clients will be asked to specify their age range, helping tailor the experience to their needs. Following this, clients will select their desired travel destination. This page will ask the client when they plan to travel.

At the bottom of the page, a "Next" button will guide them seamlessly to the "Flight" page, ensuring a smooth transition in the planning process.

Flight Page:

The flight page will confidently present a range of flight options tailored to the client's selections from the previous "Start" page.

It will clearly display the preferred seating class along with the associated prices. At the bottom of the page, a prominent "Next" button will guide the client to the Hotel Page.

Hotel Page:

The hotel page prominently showcases a selection of hotels, each with competitive pricing. Every listing includes the city where the hotel is located and visually engaging images of the property. We also highlight popular hotels in key cities to make your choice easier.

By clicking on a hotel, you will access a detailed pop-up that confidently outlines the amenities and services available, ensuring you have all the information you need to make your decision. Once the client selects their preferred hotel and suite, a prominent "Next" button will appear at the end, directing them to the activity page seamlessly.

Activity Page:

Once the client has selected their preferred hotel, this page will confidently present a range of exciting activities offered by the agency, along with options available in other cities. Each activity will feature vibrant images and comprehensive descriptions, ensuring clients have all the information they need. Moreover, clients can easily choose multiple activities to enhance their experience.

At the bottom, there will be a clear "Next" button that will take the client directly to the contact page.

Contact Page:

The client will confidently input their full name, email, and phone number on this page.

At the top, they will complete their information. At the bottom, there is a section affirming their understanding of the privacy policy.

Upon reviewing the privacy policy, they can seamlessly move on to the bill page by clicking the "Next" button.

Bill Page:

At the top of the bill page will show the different price of flight, hotel, activities, our services, and if they get a guide, and of course tax. If the price exceeds their budget, we can confidently adjust the client to meet their financial needs.

It will then calculate everything and show the total about.

At the bottom there are options on how to pay and if they want to make a payment plan.
